

Oasis Coordinator, Community Support Services

Full Time

$27.71 - $30.79

Reference#:22-089A

Reporting to the Regional Director, Community Support Services the Oasis Coordinator oversees the delivery of OASIS supportive living programming in order to address social, nutritional, and physical needs of seniors' livings in naturally occurring retirement communities. Working collaboratively with seniors in the program and the Oasis' Board of Directors, the Oasis Coordinator works to develop recreational and social activities while ensuring members have agency and choice over program decisions that affect their lives. Fostering an environment where seniors can age comfortably and independently in the community of their choice, the Coordinator works to strengthen social connections between residents. The OASIS Coordinator develops and maintains strong relationships with members, the Oasis Board of Directors, landlords, and local health or social service providers to deliver appropriate supports.
